Mattapoisett Grange Meeting

MRS. JOHANSEN RECEIVES JEWEL

Mattapoisett Grange held its bi-monthly meeting last Thursday night in the Grange Hall with the worthy master, Susan Bence, presiding. Honored guests were Deputy Alton Bailey, Edna Day, a member of the State Home and Community Service committee; Herbert LaFleur, master of Acushnet Grange; Manuel Rodericks of Fairhaven and Robert Ouellette, master of Rochester Grange.

Reports were given by the treasurer, Home and Community Service chairman, relief chairman and matron of the Junior Grange.

Agricultural chairman Otto Kellish spoke on the value in improving the garden soil. He suggested sowing grass seed or barley and wheat, later turning the grass over into the soil.

Deputy Alton Bailey of New Bedford presented Mrs. Edith Johansen with her 50-year National Certificate and a gold 50-year jewel in a most impressive ceremony.

Mrs. Johansen was escorted to the altar by the worthy master, Susan Bence, who pinned the jewel on Mrs. Johansen. Her corsage was pinned on by the lecturer, Mrs. Mildred LeBaron.

Deputy Bailey also read a letter from the State Master, Frank Nelson, congratulating her on

13 Stripers' Party

NEARLY 400 GUESTS ATTEND STRIPER CLUB

The 13 Striper Club members were hosts last Wednesday night as they celebrated their 20th anniversary by inviting a few friends to a feast at Harbor Beach Club in Mattapoisett. About 400 guests enjoyed the striper dinner which featured Cape Cod quahog chowder and sea bass. Bud Lilley and his orchestra provided music for dancing following the dinner. Dick McMorrow entertained at the piano.

The annual event opens another fishing season in the area. Club president, Joseph Lafferty, who is the chef for the chowder, greeted the guests as they arrived and supervised the serving. So many guests were on hand that 3 separate sittings were required.

Marion Garden Club

The Marion Garden Club meeting will be held at 1:45 P.M. March 13th at the home of Mrs. Lauritis Flem, 72 Converse Road, Marion. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Alexander Barrie of Ned's Point Road, Mattapoisett who will give an illustrated talk on how to attain continuous color and beauty in your garden Spring, Summer and Fall.

Mrs. Barrie's garden has been much admired during the years and this will give members and guests an opportunity for visual enjoyment as well as learning.

The flower arrangements for this month are a fun creation (go wild), to be judged by members.

Hostesses will be Mrs. A. H. Vonderleith and Mrs. Millard Titcomb.

A sumptuous covered dish luncheon was enjoyed. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Shaw. Mrs. Marjorie H. Wilson, chaplain, gave the invocation.

Reports of committees were given and a donation voted. A letter from the secretary of the Women's Community Guild invited the Circle to the re-scheduled meeting March 7th, to take place of the meeting canceled February 7th, due to the blizzard.

The next meeting will be held at the Sunday School rooms March 21st. Members will work on articles for the summer sale.

DRAMATIC MOTION PICTURE TO BE PRESENTED IN ROCHESTER MARCH 12

An inspiring feature-length 60-minute film that forcefully portrays the spiritual impact of the Easter season will be shown Sunday evening, March 12th, at First Congregational Church, Rochester Center, at 7 P.M. The film was many months in the making and was produced at a cost of many thousands of dollars. This Hollywood presentation depicts the aged Peter in prison with other Christians awaiting unknown tortures and possible death. By means of "flash-backs" Peter tells the story of the influence of Christ in his life.

The program is sponsored by the Pilgrim Fellowship in cooperation with the Board of Deacons and the Fellowship of Ushers.

The ushering committee is comprised of Victor Meservey, Joseph Thompson, Alan Ross, Daniel Ross, David Pare and Alan Maccarone.

The publicity committee, Robert Phillips, Henry Saunders, Tyler Brown, Peggy Thompson, Bonnie Maccarone and Machelle LaPointe.

FINE ARTS GROUP VISITS MUSEUM

The second trip to the "Age of Rembrandt Show" at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts on March 1st by the Fine Arts Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club included Mrs. James Hinman, hostess with her car; Mrs. Benjamin Brintnall, Mrs. Robert Browne, Mrs. Victor Twiraga and Miss Lydia LeB. Walker. Lunch at the Midtown Restaurant was enjoyed between morning and afternoon sessions of viewing. The Impressionist Gallery was also visited at the Museum. The group finished the afternoon as guests at a private viewing of paintings by Mildred Hicks Nelson in the Thomas Crane Library, Quincy. This showing was by invitation only to Miss Walker, fine arts chairman.

CALL TO CREATIVE ARTISTS

Any member of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club who will loan her original art work for Show & Tell Day March 30th is urged to inform the Fine Arts Committee between March 15 and 22. Mrs. Luen Johnson has accepted the co-chairmanship for the Fine Arts Group with Miss Lydia LeB. Walker, chairman. Call 2074 or 2102 if you plan to exhibit your work. Delivery of the art work is not expected until the day before the show, but plans are dependent on your early cooperation.

PROFESSIONAL THEATER AT ORRHS

Professional theater is coming to Old Rochester Regional High School. Under the sponsorship of the Old Rochester Teachers' Association, the National Theater Company of New York is presenting "The World of Theater" April 11. "The World of Theater" is a composite program of scenes from great plays, ranging from Aeschylus' Eumenides to Thornton Wilder's The Skin of Our Teeth.

Purpose of the production is to present theater-goers with a panoramic view of dramatic development from ancient times to the present. The actors in the company come from such respected groups as the American Shakespeare Festival, the New York Shakespeare Festival, and numerous touring and stock companies. All of them had had experience on the New York stage.

In bringing the National Theater Company here, the Old Rochester Teachers Association hopes to accomplish two ends: acquaint students with the history of the theater and raise money for the Citizens Scholarship foundation. All profits derived from the performance will be used to grant a scholarship in the name of the Teachers' Association.

The program includes excerpts from such classics as Henry IV, Hamlet, Cyrano de Bergerac, Chekov's The Bear, Moliere's The Miser, and Wilder's The Skin of Our Teeth, as well as Greek drama. Barry Weissler, managing director of the group, said, "We want the students to leave our production with the feeling that they have learned and benefited from what they have seen. We hope that through our efforts they will discover what good theater is and what an integral part of good education it is. Of course, and almost as important, we want them to be entertained."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

February 27th it was necessary to call on the Mattapoisett Police Department for ambulance service to St. Luke's Hospital.

This being the second trip for me in a two-month period I must make special mention and appreciation for their fine assistance. One must not omit special thanks to Peter Briggs and Robert Wenstrom for their help.

Many thanks boys,
Richard (Dick) Dennie.

YWCA

Mrs. William L. Jenney, president of the YWCA, welcomed members to the "Members Night" program planned to give an opportunity to learn more about the YWCA, and the issues coming before the 24th National Convention YWCA of the U.S.A. in Boston April 24-29. Miss Mary C. Hierholcer, chairman of membership committee, presided.

Mrs. Grace E. Young, director teen program, reported on YWCA Conference Cycle for Teenagers. On March 11th Y-Teens Mid-Winter Conference will be held in the YWCA in Boston, and the annual New England Y-Teen Summer one-week Conference, the last week in June will be hosted by Newton College of the Sacred Heart. It is expected that 8 to 10 teenagers from the local "Y" will attend.

The emphasis for teenagers in the National Program Institute, held at Continuing Education Headquarters at Chicago University last December, was helping teenagers in local communities to be concerned with the "City of Tomorrow". Mrs. Young, with Mrs. Erma E. De Boer, executive director of the YWCA, attended this Institute, and reported her teenagers here have been meeting with New Bedford's Beautification sub-committee of the city's "Conservation Committee on Beautification". Mrs. Young stated that her group had been invited to attend the Massachusetts Conference on Beauty and Conservation in Worcester on April 1, to participate in a State-wide program of Youth Action aimed toward the beautification of the State.

Mrs. DeBoer gave highlights of the coming National Convention, and later reported on the National Program Institute in Chicago.

Mrs. George Grimes, chairman of Public Affairs committee, assisted by committee members Mrs. James E. Brownhill, Mrs. Timothy Holland, and Mrs. Leonora White, reported on items recommended by the National Board for the Public Affiars Program to be voted at the National Convention.

Members of the staff reviewed areas of program to which the National Board recommends high priority be given in the next triennium, including Education, Work and Leisure, Racial

Shell Heating Oil can save you money in two important ways

New Shell Heating Oil has been refined by a special Shell patented Hydro-desulphurization process. Billions of sulphur and nitrogen atoms are removed from the oil. The results are clear: this new oil is bright and clean - a very stable heating oil for your burner. This super cleanliness and stability helps save you money.

New Shell Heating Oil also has a special additive that helps guard burner openings against heat robbing deposits. The combination of a properly adjusted burner and Shell Heating Oil helps reduce both fuel bills and service calls. New Shell Heating Oil is available now. Call us today for complete facts.
